

Thinking of working in the creative sector?

Want to brush up on your skills, knowledge and practical experience?

Are you unemployed or looking for a work placement?

October Gallery is delivering a FREE four week art business enterprise course at their new 'pop up' shop!

The workshop will cover:

- Learning new creative and practical art skills
- Learning about different artists, how to run an art workshop and about different art organisations that support volunteers.
- How to sell, market and promote your product run by a group of experts
- Ideas and tips about employment in the arts

The workshops will take place from 10 – 2pm on Wednesday 8th, 15th, 22nd and 29th September 2010. You must commit to ALL four dates.

This workshop is open to unemployed Camden residents. Please apply by telling us why you think you would benefit from this course. Spaces are limited so book now.....
